

Young Investigator Grant Request: Conditions and rules

- The investigator requesting the grant should be < 40 years old
- The investigator should be an MD, a PHD (in biology or health care)
- The investigator has to be supported by a senior supervisor of the institution and have the opportunity to build his career in this institution.
- The research project should be related to cancer disease.
- The research topic can be preclinical, translational, clinical or of public health.
- The amount of the grant will be of CHF 100'000.- for 2 years
- The requested grant cannot cover the salary of the main applicant.
- The grant proposal will be assessed by the scientific committee with the help of external experts
- The request must be written in English.
- A research plan should be provided as well as a short CV and a financial overview.
- The request should include a support letter from the director of the Institution.
- The detailed letter of intent should be 5-10 pages, Arial 11, simple space.
- The letter of intent should include on the front page a summary of the project. It should then give a complete description of the project, in the context of the current scientific knowledge. It should describe the research plan and the used methodology. It should emphasize the significance of the expected results in the current scientific context. It should demonstrate the expertise of the applicants to carry through a project and to publish it. It should propose a detailed budget of the financial needs and mention other sources of financial support.
- The request should be sent in an electronic form in one and unique document to: contact@fondaction.ch
- The final decision (positive or negative) will be sent by email. The decision is legally binding and allows no course of appeal. Obtaining a financial support is occasional and not obligatory.
- A final report should be sent at the end of the 2 years with a copy of the publications, abstracts and/or any other public documents that have been produced. The final report should be sent in an electronic form to contact@fondaction.ch